The purpose of this series is to give parents up to date information in two basic categories; how to communicate your child's needs to others and effective strategies to help your child learn and communicate with others. Our objective is to use everyday situations to make it easier for parents to use strategies and to ask for help in problem solving for activities of daily living.

This group is open to the public and everyone is welcome. The focus of this group is for parents of children 0-9 years old, but parents of older children are welcome.
